CHAPTER VIII – CASE OF CANCELLATION

Article 96

Cancellation - by an organising club - of an event forming part for any of the Lebanese motor sport championships, Rally, Hill Climb, Cross-Country Rally or Karting, should be notified unless provision for doing so has been made at least FOUR WEEKS before the proposed date. Cancellation with a notice of less than FOUR WEEKS will result in excluding the event from the Championship of the following year, in its corresponding category.

Article 97

Cases of force majeure will be taken into consideration upon being examined and ruled individually by the Coordinator of the ASN.

Article 98

The results of any Lebanese championship will be finalised only if the sum of points allocated to the events being held has a cumulative total that is equal or greater than 60% of the initial total coefficient determined within the Calendar, (refer to Article 51).

CHAPTER IX – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 99

By entering any Championship, the event organisers, entrants, teams as well as the competitors submit themselves to the sporting jurisdictions specified in the National Sporting Code, Internal Regulations Article 2.

Article 100

Any case not provided for in these Sporting Regulations will be studied by the ASN Coordinator, who will take the appropriate decision, which thereon will be final.

Article 101

The ASN insists on reminding all participants that Motor Sport CAN BE DANGEROUS. Excessive attention and vigilance is required, requested and expected vis-à-vis spectators road users other participants, team members, organisers, marshals in addition to themselves against various risks and danger.

The ASN cannot, and in no case, be held responsible for any accident, physical injuries and/or losses in addition to material damage caused by accidents occurring during organised and/or authorised events.

The ASN insists on all the participants to behave appropriately in order not to harm the Motor Sport in particular and the Sport in general.

Article 102

By entering any Championship, the event organisers, entrants, teams as well as the competitors are obliged to assist in the promotion of the Championship in any means deemed necessary by the ASN such as television / radio broadcast interviews, etc...

Drivers finishing first, second and third in each Championship event as well as the drivers finishing in each named category must immediately make themselves available after the prize giving for media interviews.

In accordance with Chapter I, Article 4 of the Internal Regulations, “All filming and moving picture rights pertaining to any Lebanese Motor Sports Championship shall be vested in the ASN. Without the written agreement of the ASN, no organisation, commercial company or brand may be associated with a Lebanese Motor Sport Championship, Trophy, Cup, Competition or Challenge. The same applies to all forms of moving pictures of a Lebanese Motor Sport Championship, Trophy, Cup or Challenge”.

Competitors, teams and entrants who wish to carry on-board cameras, in-car videos and/or film cameras must have the prior agreement of the CSN beforehand. However, it is MANDATORY to provide the CSN with a COMPLETE NOT EDITED copy of the recordings upon requisition.

Authorised cameras will be identified by an adhesive decal and must be mounted in/on the car at the time of scrutineering.

Failing to observe this rule will be subject to a penalty at the discretion of the ASN disciplinary authorities.

Article 103

Testing is allowed. All vehicles running the test should not have any sticker or any indication whatsoever to the Automobile and touring club of Lebanon (ATCL), its logo and any of the events organised by the ATCL.

Failing to observe this rule will be subject to a penalty at the discretion of the ASN disciplinary authorities which may go as far as license withdrawal.

Article 104

In case of an entry, for an event forming part for any of the Lebanese motor sport championship(s), being refused by the organising committee, the latter must notify the Coordinator of the ASN within 48 hours of such decision stating the grounds for such a refusal, but in cases of force majeure (duly recognized by the Coordinator of the ASN) before the closing date of entries.

Article 105

In case of any dispute concerning the interpretation of these Sporting Regulations, only the English text will be binding.

Article 106

These present Sporting Regulations delete and replace all the previous editions, and might possibly be revised and/or amended by bulletins issued by the ASN.

Article 107

The Lebanese motorsport year starts on January 15th and ends on December 15th of each year. Any event run before and/or beyond the aforementioned period will be disregarded as for scoring points in the Lebanese Motorsport Championships.

Article 108

Any driver and any co-driver winning a Lebanese Championship, Trophy or Cup must be present at the annual prize-giving ceremony, if invited by the ATCL. Save in a case of force majeure, absence will entail a 500 U.S. Dollars fine imposed by the ASN.

Article 109

These Sporting Regulations supersede and replace all editions previously published and come into force on January 1st 2018.
